

Editorial Submission Guidelines

CACM welcomes submissions of opinion and feature articles on relevant topics for publication in any of our print and digital publications. Submissions must be exclusive to CACM and should be 500 to 700 words in length. They are unlikely to be accepted if they are longer than 700 words. We do not consider articles sent to other publications or posted online, including on a personal blog, nor do we consider anonymous or pseudonymous submissions.

Articles are accepted only from CACM members in good standing and in these membership categories: Individual Pro and Pro Plus, Business Plus and Business Members, Industry Partner and Industry Partner Plus.

We consider only completed articles and do not provide guidance on ideas or proposals. Countless factors affect whether an article is suitable for publication, including space constraints, timeliness and relevance. We reserve the right to refuse to publish a submission, and there is no guarantee of placement in any CACM publication.

We do our best to read all submissions promptly and will contact you within one week if we are interested in publishing your article. We are happy to provide the writer a PDF copy of their article as long as credit is properly given with content provided by CACM.

You can submit your article online at cacm.org/news or email the word document to communications@cacm.org. Please include a high-resolution photo of author as a jpg or png file.
