

SPEAKERS

Alexander Noland, Esq.

Noland provides legal services to associations managing residential, mixed-use, and commercial and industrial common interest developments throughout California. His practice includes counseling associations on corporate governance, fiduciary duties, and compliance with statutory and regulatory requirements.

Allison L. Andersen, Esq.

Andersen represents community associations in corporate governance, operational, transactional, and civil litigation matters and has over nineteen years of experience in litigating issues related to insurance coverage, real estate fraud, and disclosure.

Brian Moreno, Esq.

Moreno is an experienced litigator and community association attorney that has represented and provided legal counsel to the boards and managing agents for California condominium and planned developments, qualified vacation ownership resorts, and mobile home communities and has practiced CID law since 2003.

Bruce Ratliff, CAMEx, CCAM-HR.CI

Ratliff has been in the Common Interest Management industry for over 30 years, transitioning to Commercial Management and Consulting Services. Ratliff is a manager focused on raising awareness of industry knowledge, California legislation, building relationships, and best practices in the workplace.

SPEAKERS

Caroline McCormick, CAMEx, CCAM

McCormick has over 30 years of experience in the industry, most notably as CEO of Association Communications Inc. from 1992-2018. McCormick has been certified through CACM since 1993 in Community Association Management. McCormick joined the OMNI family in 2018 as an Internal Auditor of Client Services.

Christina Ciceron, Esq.

Ciceron is the managing partner of Ciceron Law, APC. Her firm represents community associations throughout California in general counsel, delinquent assessment collections, and litigation matters. Ciceron serves on the California Association of Community Managers (CACM) teaching faculty.

Frederick T. Whitney, Esq.

Whitney entered the community association industry in 1998 and has significant experience in community association elections and negotiation and drafting of contracts, dispute resolution, CC&R enforcement and interpretation. Whitney now serves as counsel to some of the largest master planned communities in California,

James Hofmann, CAMEx, CCAM

Following a nearly 20-year career on the content development side of public relations, Hofmann reinvented himself into an association management expert. In 2016, Hofmann became the Vice President of Community Management for The Management Trust, and was recently named Executive Vice President.

SPEAKERS

Jennifer Jacobsen, Esq.

Jacobsen and her team serve as general corporate counsel to over 900 community associations. Jacobsen assists boards of directors with day-to-day operations that include providing orientation and training, enforcing and revising governing documents, and transitioning from developer to member control.

Jennifer Wada, Esq.

Wada is an attorney, legislative advocate, and principal of Wada Government Relations LLC. She has been lobbying for the community management industry for over 17 years and has successfully lobbied some of the most controversial pieces of legislation impacting common interest developments in California.

Joan Lewis-Heard, Esq.

Lewis-Heard started practicing law in 1986 and has litigated all types of civil cases. Having represented and defended everything from Fortune 500 corporations to "mom & pop" businesses, she has gained the knowledge to assist any community association of any size in litigation of nearly every type of matter that may arise.

Joe Price, CAMEX, CCAM

Price has worked in the community association industry for 18 years and is a highly regarded veteran in our field. Price has extensive experience in the areas of client retention and has developed numerous programs designed to help HOA's become the very best versions of themselves.

SPEAKERS

John Cligny, CAMEx, CCAM-HR

Cligny is a veteran portfolio manager and industry leader that has supported the industry and CACM with his involvement as a Legislative Affairs committee member and chairman, CACM board member and chairman, Credentialing and Ethics committee member, faculty member, and speaker on various industry topics.

John D. Hansen, Esq.

Hansen is actively involved in the community association industry, including authoring numerous articles published in industry periodicals and Law Journals. Hansen also assists community associations and their boards of directors in the management of their common interest development subdivisions.

Justin Sacoolas, CCAM

Sacoolas has been a certified CCAM since 2012 and is the Monterey Regional Manager for Compass Management Group, Inc. Sacoolas has focuses on mentoring boards and managers towards simplifying operations and keeping all communications productive, respectful, and in everyone's best interest.

Karen Conlon, MCAM

Conlon is a Senior Executive, Corporate Director, and Strategist. As President & CEO of CACM (1992 – 2014), she successfully launched and grew the premier organization by providing industry respected certification programs. Conlon retired from CACM in 2014 and formed Sequoia Grove Consulting, Inc. as President & CEO.

SPEAKERS

Kieran Purcell, Esq.

Purcell has served seven years in the United States Navy and joined Epstein, APC in 1995. Kieran's work on behalf of community associations includes providing advice on all types of corporate matters including litigation, interpretation and enforcement of governing documents, and reconstruction issues.

Kimberley Flickner, CCAM-PM

Flickner has been a certified community manager for 15 years. Flickner is the Vice President of Operations for Bay Area Property Services and has been effective and efficient, empowering and educating the staff and always striving for the best possible results.

Laurie Harris, CAMEx, CCAM

Harris has been with CIDC for 17 Years and is the Director of Management Services. She is also on the leadership team for CID Consortium. She helps to guide managers to best practices, and makes sure they receive all the education necessary to best perform their job.

Matt Ober, Esq.

Ober is a partner of Richardson | Ober | DeNichilo LLP where his practice is dedicated to the exclusive representation of community associations. He has served as counsel to community associations for over three decades, making significant contributions to the Community Association industry through CACM.

SPEAKERS

Paul Windust, Esq.

Windust is a Principal in Berding Weil's litigation practice group and co-chairs the firm's Director and Officers Litigation Group. He has over 20 years of experience in both commercial and residential real estate law and has litigated and tried to verdict numerous complex business, real estate, and construction defect matters.

Rachel Miller, Esq.

Miller has proudly practiced law with The Miller Law Firm for over 25 years with the primary and unique role of Senior Partner with a focus on client connection and providing immediate contact and communication to current and prospective clients, board members, and community association managers.

Robert DeNichilo, Esq.

DeNichilo is the managing partner at Richardson | Ober | DeNichilo. Robert has focused his practice on representing common interest developments including large scale master associations, condominium projects, and planned unit developments across the state of California.

Steve Roseman, Esq.

Roseman is the founder and managing partner of Roseman Law, APC, a full-service real estate firm specializing in representation of homeowners' associations as general counsel and collection of assessments. Roseman has represented homeowners' associations and their boards for over 25 years.

SPEAKERS

Steven T. Brindle, Esq.

Brindle is a Senior Associate with SwedelsonGottlieb. He represents and provides corporate counsel to community associations on a wide range of matters. He also has real estate law experience regarding leasing and ground leases, escrow and title, boundaries and easements, and zoning.

Tara Radley, Esq.

Radley, a partner with Beaumont Tashjian, has devoted her time to the firm's litigation department. Radley oversees the firm's litigation practice, with particular experience in law and motion, including obtaining and defending various types of restraining orders and preliminary injunctions, mediations and appeals.

Todd Greisen, CCAM

As an onsite manager of 328 condos in Antioch, CA for over 13 years, Greisen has a relatively unique perspective - leading an HOA located in a low-income & high-crime area. He shares his experience and knowledge with peers and vendors as a contributing writer for industry periodicals and web content.

Tracy Neal, Esq.

Neal has over 20 years of extensive experience in corporate law, business transactions, real estate transactions, and California Community Association law. Her innate knowledge of the Common Interest Development industry lends a wealth of knowledge to The Miller Law Firm's association clients.